

Candidate Quintel's Statement

Henry J. (Hank) Quintel

Age: 74

Occupation: Retired Federal Employee USPS

Korean War Veteran

Education: Associate Degree in Business from Solano College

I hold various Certificates in; Negotiating, Labor Contracts, Fair Labor Practices, Industrial Management, Maintenance, and Working with Disadvantaged Employees.

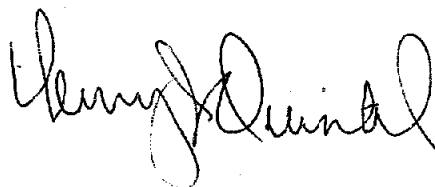

I have 42 Years Management experience.

My Management experience has been in various responsible management positions with the Federal Government, large and small companies, and using managerial best practices, I have implemented action plans that resulted in savings of hundreds of thousands of dollars, annually.

My goal in every leadership position has always been to leave that role or operation more efficient and profitable, then it was when I came on board; to this end, I have been successful.

I am seeking a position on the Hayward City Council to give something back to the city where I grew up.

To help implement the changes that will restore the dream of a vital and vibrant city that Hayward once was, and needs to be once again.
